

Transmogrify!: 14 Fantastical Tales of Trans Magic edited by G. Haron Davis

Comstock Township Library, Friday 2/21/25 @ 4pm

Discussion Questions:

1. Did you finish reading the book?
2. Did the short format of each piece leave you feeling like you wanted more of the story?
3. Which stories did you enjoy the most?
4. Which stories did you dislike/fail to connect with/struggle with the most?
5. Did reading the anthology change your perspective on trans identities or any other marginalized identities represented in the stories? If so, how?
6. Were there any themes you noticed that came up again and again?
7. In what ways do you feel the anthology celebrates the diversity and resilience of the trans community?
8. Are there any elements you wished you saw more of in these stories?
9. How do you think the stories would be different if the book was intended for an older audience?
10. If you had to choose one of the stories to be a character inside of for a day, which story would you choose and why?
